

Data collected within Volante WP3-Hotspots and syndromes of recent land-use transitions by The European Forest Institute's (EFI) contributed to quantify the spatial distribution of forest ownership. EFI just published a technical report on forest ownership in Europe. Please find below the link to the press release of the European Forest Ownership mapping report and to the report itself:

Press release: http://www.efi.int/portal/news_events/news/?bid=1104

Report: http://www.efi.int/portal/virtual_library/publications/technical_reports/88/