

Deliverable D4.5 Report on comparative analysis is now available. In this deliverable (D4.5) was applied a decomposition approach to the HANPP framework to scrutinize the role of drivers of change in the course of the last century. Such an analysis allows to depict underlying processes of the different major changes in land systems in Europe and provides the basis to furthering our understanding of the nature and conditions of land system change.

VOLANTE D4.5 Report on comparative analysis